

SAINT JOAN OF THE STOCKYARDS

Company Rules #2

Actor Guidelines In the Theatre Space

The Ohio State University Theatre, 1849 Cannon Drive, Columbus, OH 43210
The company of Saint Joan of the Stockyards
To be performed May 22nd – June 1st, 2002
In Thurber Theatre

COMPANY RULES #2 - ACTORS

1. Beginning with the first technical rehearsal, on May 15, 2002, you will be required to sign in each night and for each performance. Do not sign in for another person.
2. If you expect to be late for a rehearsal, call in! The Stage Manager's Cell Phone number is 679-1964.
3. For security reasons, in Thurber Theatre, use the stage door through the green room to enter the stage, not the lobby doors. They will be locked. Do not wedge them open.
4. Guests are not allowed in the dressing room or green room areas after 7:00 p.m., from first dress rehearsals through all performance nights.
5. Do not speak to the stage manager or assistant stage manager during the execution of lighting cues, sound cues, fly cues, or set changes, unless you have an emergency. Make note of the comment or problem, and seek him or her out later.
6. Do not talk backstage during rehearsal or performance. If you must communicate, please whisper.
7. A reminder, there is no smoking in the Drake.
8. Please be alert to the monitor system and more reliably, the assistant stage manager regarding your cues. The stage manager is responsible for warnings only before acts, not before individual cues once the act has begun.
9. Please stay out of the entrance areas during entrances and exits of other actors and crew members during scene shifts.
10. Please be aware of audience sightlines. If you can see them, they can see you.
11. Crew watch takes place on May 13, 2002. Get to know the names of all crewmembers. Calling a crewmember "wardrobe guy" or "set shift girl" is unacceptable. The crew is a part of this production. Mutual respect between cast and crew will go a long way over the performance run.
12. This production is the department's show, not "my" show, "our" show, or Lesley's show. Please refer to your connection with the production as "the" show, or by St. Joan of the Stockyards.

13. If you have any problems during the technical or dress rehearsals, with costume changes, entrance or exiting the stage in darkness or blackouts, properties, etc., notify the assistant stage manager backstage – Becky Rhinehart & Kate Buquo will both be back stage to assist you. Do not call into the auditorium to the stage manager at the tech table, unless you are in an emergency situation. Utilize the assistant stage managers, as they will be backstage with you each night.

14. If you have a guest interested in attending technical and dress rehearsals, please contact the stage manager and I will confirm this with the director.

15. As stated in Company Rules #1, when places or any kind of announcement is called, only two responses are acceptable. They are either "thank you" or "I have a problem. This is required of everyone.

Be prepared for additions to this list, as specific items pertaining to this production arise.

A copy of this list will be posted near the sign-in sheet in the green room for your reference. Thank you.
